Registration Fees

Registration fees for this four-day meeting are $825 and include all lectures, course materials, continental breakfast and breaks, and a welcome reception for registrants, faculty and guests. It is easiest to register online by going to www.rad-cme.med.nyu.edu and click on Conferences and follow the simple instructions. You will receive an automatic emailed confirmation and receipt for your tuition. If you prefer to register by fax or mail, please see the Registration Form at the back of this brochure. Emails are now required for confirmations.

Reduced fees ($595) are available for physicists, residents, fellows, NYU School of Medicine alumni, technologists, and M.D.’s employed by the Department of Veterans Affairs Med Ctr and full-time active military personnel.

In case of questions, call 212 263-3936 or email Carmen.Escobar@med.nyu.edu or Janice.ford-benner@med.nyu.edu.

St. Thomas

The most popular tourist destination in the Caribbean is the US Virgin Islands; St. Thomas, St. Croix and St. John. St. Thomas is 33 square miles in size with circling roads and winding hills. Drake’s Seat is where Sir Francis used to sit and count his ships. Just below Drake’s Seat is Magen’s Bay Beach, voted by National Geographic Magazine as one of the most beautiful beaches in the world. Another part of the island looks very much like the countryside of France, with cattle grazing in green fields; west of downtown there is Frenchtown. St. Thomas offers many fine restaurants serving international cuisine, the largest charter yacht fleet in the Caribbean, and a variety of other things to do away from the beach.

Charlotte Amalie (named for a Danish Queen) is the capital of the US Virgin Islands and the most popular cruise port in the Caribbean. Colorful sloops dock along the waterfront, and a few steps back, down alleyways lined with old Danish warehouse buildings, is world-famous duty-free shopping.

Ritz Carlton Resort & Spa • St. Thomas

Nestled within a 30-acre estate, this luxury resort has just completed a $75 million renovation and expansion. The resort overlooks the sparkling turquoise waters and white-sand beaches of the eastern tip of the island. Here, guests can explore the underwater world; enjoy gourmet dining, including four restaurants offering guests a choice of casual, light dining or a more formal setting; and an intimate new boutique Spa, Salon and Fitness Center. Luxurious treatment rooms, open-air cabanas, an outdoor relaxation terrace and a fully equipped workout studio overlook the ocean. In-room treatments are also available. The Ritz Carlton offers the Ritz Kids program for children ages 4–12 and “Caribbean Nanny Care” baby-sitting service.

Located just 15 minutes from the resort is the US Virgin Island’s only 18-hole championship golf course, Mahogany Run. Featuring the famous “Devil’s Triangle,” the course was designed by George and Tom Fazio with challenge in mind. The breathtaking coastline of St. Thomas and the natural contours of its hills and valleys combine with year-round sunshine and tropical flora to create a truly memorable golfing experience.
