Purpose Statement

There are many recent technological advances in imaging techniques which can be applied in current clinical practice. Maintenance of certification requires continued review of essential imaging techniques in all areas of radiology, including body imaging and musculoskeletal imaging.

Target Audience

This course is designed for practicing clinical radiologists, particularly those who concentrate on musculoskeletal imaging. Orthopedic surgeons would also be interested in this program.

Accreditation Statement

The NYU Post-Graduate Medical School is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation

The NYU Post-Graduate Medical School designates this educational activity for a maximum of 19.25 category I credits toward the AMA Physician’s Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only those hours that he/she spent in the activity.

Disclosure Statement

The NYU Post-Graduate Medical School adheres to ACCME Standards regarding industry support of continuing medical education. Disclosure of any commercial relationships as well as discussion of off-label or investigational use of any drug, device, or procedure by the faculty will be made known at the symposium.

Course Description

This three-day course (Friday, Saturday and Sunday) was designed as a state-of-the-art update on all facets of sports medicine imaging. Detailed lectures on MRI of all articulations will be covered. In addition, updates on cartilage, post-operative imaging and the variable appearances of traumatic marrow disorders will be featured. There will also be an interactive MR arthroscopic correlation sessions separately for the knee, shoulder and wrist. An update on new orthopedic measurements will be provided during this course.

Educational Objectives

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- identify the optimal sequences for imaging cartilage
- review the usual post-operative appearances following arthroscopy
- describe the imaging appearances of internal derangements of the knee, shoulder, wrist and ankle
- define the anatomy of the wrist, hand and foot
