Hawai’i’s historic attractions include the City of Refuge and Kealakekua Bay, where Captain Cook met his death in 1779. The major attraction on the island is Hawaii Volcano National Park, where you can see steaming craters, giant tree fern forests and the Lava Tube, a strange volcanic formation.

FOUR SEASONS RESORT HUALALAI – Fringed by exceptional frontage on its own natural Pacific beach, Four Seasons has created an enclave of just 32 beachfront and four golf club bungalows. From every room, meditative ocean views stretch to the horizon. Expansive personal spaces give each guest a sense that the Resort is exclusively theirs. Yet, every amenity is close at hand. The finest international and local cuisine, rooms with generous interiors inspired by local architecture and artisans, a championship Jack Nicklaus golf course, a tennis complex, and a compete and innovative Health and Wellness Center are only a few of the delights to be found.

The following room package categories and conference rates are reserved from January 27, 2007 to February 3, 2007. Additional nights subject to availability.
