4. When assessing patients with breast lesions, radiology. The course is designed to promote MRI and breast MRI will improve your practice of cardiovascular imaging, high field musculoskeletal perfusion imaging, MR spectroscopy, non-invasive vascular systems, from head to toe, based on how this is applicable to your clinical practice, with a special focus on coronary CTA, the normal coronary anatomy and the technique.

Course Description
This four-day course is intended to provide an overview of the state-of-the-art imaging techniques with an emphasis on how these techniques can improve your clinical practice. The course will focus on MDCT and MRI, with particular reference to MDCT in cardiac imaging, body MRI, musculoskeletal MRI, neuroradiology as well as breast imaging. In addition to being a practical review of common clinical scenarios with some case-based reviews, a number of “hot topics” which have clinical relevance, such as low field versus high field (3 Tesla) MR imaging and parallel imaging techniques will be discussed. A number of exciting new developments in the field of diagnostic imaging such as diffusion, perfusion imaging, MR spectroscopy, non-invasive cardiovascular imaging, high field musculoskeletal MRI and breast MRI will improve your practice of radiology. The course is designed to promote audience participation and time has been allotted to encourage interaction between attendees and faculty.

Educational Objectives
1. By comparing and contrasting imaging techniques and equipment (such as high-field 3-T MR imaging, parallel MR imaging and multi-detector CT), create new and improved imaging protocols after reviewing and discussing various cases (including cases of the neuro, musculoskeletal, cardiovascular and body regions).
2. In order to improve your diagnosis and triage of therapy in neurological clinical scenarios (such as the seizure patient or patient with spinal disease) apply advanced imaging techniques such as diffusion, perfusion MRI and MR spectroscopy in acute ischemic stroke, tumoral and non-tumoral disease, for more accurate diagnosis and optimal patient care.
3. When patients present with problems in the liver, kidneys and the female pelvis, you will incorporate the most recent research advances and imaging applications and techniques for faster and more efficient diagnosis of benign or malignant lesions so that patients receive optimal care.
4. When assessing patients with breast lesions, improve your breast imaging accuracy by avoiding common pitfalls in interpretation as determined by the latest evidence-based diagnostic and therapeutic options.

5. When approaching an MRI of the shoulder or wrist, identify a number of clinical pearls to more effectively recognize abnormalities as well as pitfalls and common variants, as determined by the most up-to-date clinical applications.
6. Using MRA and MDCT techniques, more effectively assess the neurovascular and cardiovascular systems, from head to toe, based on how this is applicable to your clinical practice, with a special focus on coronary CTA, the normal coronary anatomy and the technique.

Purpose Statement
Due to the rapidly evolving technology found in MRI and CT, there is a need for education in new clinical applications, techniques and interpretation. Maintenance of certification requires continued review of essential imaging techniques in all areas of radiology.

Target Audience
This course is intended for practicing radiologists in academic and private practice. It will also have relevance for breast surgeons, orthopedic surgeons, neurologists and cardiologists.

Accreditation Statement
The NYU Post-Graduate Medical School is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation
The NYU Post-Graduate Medical School designates this educational activity for a maximum of 19.5 AMA PRA category 1 credit(s). Physicians should only claim credits commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure Statement
The NYU Post-Graduate Medical School adheres to ACCME Essential Areas and policies, including the Standards for Commercial Support regarding industry support of continuing medical education. In order to resolve any identified Conflicts of Interest, disclosure information is provided during the planning process to ensure resolution of any identified conflicts. Disclosure of faculty and commercial relationships as well as the discussion of off-label or investigational use of any drug, device or procedure by the faculty is listed above.

Registration Information
Registration fees for this 4-day course are $950 ($650 for residents, fellows, retirees, NYU alumni, V.A. employees, Canadian and overseas physicians). Online registration is the fastest and easiest way to register.

Cancellation Information
If you need to cancel this meeting, a $100 service charge will be assessed for your tuition payment if written notice is made at least 30 days in advance and a $150 service charge for cancellations made within 30 days. No refunds are possible if written notification is not sent.

Course Confirmation
Please be sure and provide your e-mail address to receive a confirmation/receipt.

Special Needs
The Post-Graduate Medical School of the New York University School of Medicine, in compliance with the legal requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act, requests any participant of this CME course who is in need of accommodation to submit written requests to our office at least one month prior to the course date.

Dietary Restrictions
Please indicate any dietary restrictions on the registration form when you register.

Special Topics/Questions
If there is a special topic or question that would help fulfill your educational needs, please submit it on the registration form or online.

Iceland is a pristine wonderland abundant with natural hot springs, virgin glacial lagoons, breathtaking waterfalls and active volcanoes and geysers. These protected environs produce some of the freshest fish, lamb and water. Energetic Reykjavík’s weekend nightlife and hot restaurants also make this a trip not to miss!

Iceland sounds far, doesn’t it? But not so. With less than five hours flying time from New York, Iceland is the closest European neighbor to North America.

Cold? Well, it’s not the tropics but Iceland’s summer weather is refreshing (it rarely reaches 75 degrees F in the summer) and you should expect highs in the middle to high 50s or low 60s. In summer, you won’t see much darkness – day or night – the sun will rise at 3:04 a.m. and set around midnight!

Iceland’s people (about 300,000) are proud they still speak the ancient language of the Vikings but they certainly don’t live in the past – most speak fluent English. The friendliness of the Icelanders permeates the streets of Reykjavík as you breathe in the brisk, clean ocean air and walk down cobblestone streets past brightly colored houses and historic buildings.

Reykjavík …

the world’s northernmost capital is indeed bright and colorful. Our hotel, the Nordica Hotel is located in Reykjavík, a 5-minute shuttle ride to its center (or 30-minute walk along the sea). It’s a small, charming, safe and clean city with a high quality of life and world-class services. It feels like a cosmopolitan capital and at the same time, a tiny seaside village. Reykjavík offers diversity to its tourists with quaint boutiques, bookstores, galleries, case and restaurants dotting the historic downtown area. The old harbor area is also fascinating to visit and, in the summer, festivals and activities are always to be found bringing out the local history of the area. The cultural scene in Reykjavík includes art museums, theatres, an opera house, a symphony orchestra and young artists and musicians – making Reykjavík a city of energy and character. It has a very happening music scene and is known as the ‘city that never sleeps’ on weekends but is very quiet during the week. Reykjavík is also a “spa city” with many geothermally-heated pools for swimming and bathing. For families, Reykjavík offers the Reykjavík Zoo and Family Park in Laugardalur. The kids will enjoy spotting whales and seals; taking a ride on the Viking carousel and riding one of the Viking ponies. Dining in Reykjavík’s 170 restaurants is a culinary celebration of fresh and pure natural Icelandic ingredients (seafood caught from pollution-free waters).

You’re only a 15-minute drive from downtown Reykjavík to “raw nature”. Iceland is a land of volcanoes and hot springs, mountains and lava fields, waterfalls and glaciers. We have organized an amazing array of day trips from Reykjavík every day so you can explore this rugged land.

Travel Information

Travel Planners Inc. (TPI) is the appointed Travel Coordinator. Registration for the conference will be handled through the NYU Radiology Department.

Airline Information

Discounted airfares have been contracted with Iceland Air offering substantial savings and are available only through Travel Planners, Inc, not through the airline or any other agent. Iceland Air currently offers the only scheduled service between the US and Iceland. Iceland Air gateway cities are Boston, JFK, Baltimore, Orlando, Minneapolis/St. Paul, and San Francisco. Contracted airfares are $895 from JFK, Boston, and Baltimore; $945 from Minneapolis/St. Paul and Orlando; and $965 from San Francisco. Business Class fare will be $1750 from JFK, Boston and Baltimore; $2050 from Minneapolis/St. Paul, Orlando and San Francisco. (Fares do not include add-on costs from hometown to Hub cities, TPI service fee of $40 per ticket, and are based on current taxes and airline fees which are subject to change).

Contracted air allows:

- 2 week stopover in Reykjavik; two week extension to several European cities (London, Glasgow, Amsterdam, Frankfurt, Berlin, Munich, Paris, Oslo, Stockholm, Helsinki and Copenhagen); $100 round trip add-on charge to any city beyond Iceland serviced by Iceland Air. A confirmed air itinerary, fare (including $40 service fee) and booking policies will be sent for approval prior to ticketing. Benefits: $200,000 free flight insurance. Advance seat assignments. Please call 800-810-2695, Monday through Friday, 8:30 am to 5:30 pm Central Time Zone to speak with a NYU air representative.

The Nordica Hotel (www.icehotels.is)

The 4-star Nordica Hotel (a short shuttle to the Reykjavik’s city centre) is the most elegant hotel Reykjavik has to offer and NYU has reserved only sea-facing rooms for our group. This new hotel has become one of the coolest and trendiest places to stay in Reykjavik. It was built in a minimalist, modern style with a cosmopolitan and stylish design, chic lobby and bar and also features a spa with 10 treatment rooms and gym plus the five-star Vox Restaurant (well known for gourmet dining to light bistro meals and spectacular breakfast and lunch buffets). All rooms, although small in typical European style, have high-speed internet links, TV, minibar, hairdryer. The complimentary city-center shuttle runs frequently. The hotel is also close to Reykjavik’s biggest outdoor swimming pool and outdoor activity park, Laugardalur Reykjavik.

What to Pack

“If you don’t like the weather right now, just wait five minutes,” people sometimes say in Iceland. This is an indication of the strong variability of the Icelandic climate, where one may occasionally experience the four seasons over a day. With this in mind, we suggest you pack sweaters and water- and wind-resistant jackets, layers of clothes for the weather changes, sturdy shoes, jeans, swimwear for trying out the geothermically-heated pools, hat and sunglasses.
PROGRAM INCLUDES

(Per person):

- 6 Nights Deluxe Sea View Accommodations at the Nordica Hotel (Sunday, July 23 to Saturday, July 29)
- Buffet Breakfast daily
- Assistance on Arrival and Transfer on Sunday, July 23 based on early morning arrivals.
- Transfer and entrance to the Blue Lagoon Geothermal Spa upon arrival in Iceland on Sunday, July 23; be sure and pack your swimsuit in your carry-on bag for this “once-in-a-lifetime experience”. The Blue Lagoon is Iceland’s most unique and popular attraction. Guests enjoy bathing and relaxing in geothermal seawater, known for its positive effects on the skin. A visit to the spa promotes harmony between body, mind and spirit, and enables one to soak away the stresses of modern life. The spa’s guests rekindle their relationship with nature, soak up the scenic beauty and enjoy breathing the clean, fresh air. In addition to bathing in the lagoon, guests have access to a sauna with a view of the lagoon, a steam bath with white walls that resemble silica mud and a cozy steam bath carved into a lava cave. Guests can also stand beneath a waterfall for an energizing massage. Of course, guests bathing in the milky waters of the lagoon have easy access to the famous white silica mud, located in special boxes next to the lagoon, an essential part of the spa experience. A selection of in-water spa treatments and massages are available. They take place in the lagoon, and the fresh air and natural surroundings enhance the feeling of wellness. Modern, spacious changing and shower rooms are on the site and use of Blue Lagoon shower gel, hair conditioner and moisturizing cream is included in the entrance fee.
- Morning Coffee at the Blue Lagoon
- Transfer to the Nordica Hotel
- Private waiting area with buffet brunch until rooms are ready for check in.
- Afternoon (3-6pm) Tour of Reykjavik highlights. A guided bus tour of the greater Reykjavik area. A great way to get a good overview of the city within a short time. This tour includes the most significant places in the capital and some surrounding towns, such as the Presidential Residence at Bessastadir, the Restaurant Perlan (the Pearl), and Höfði House where the all-important summit meeting between President Ronald Reagan and Secretary General Mikhail Gorbachev took place in 1986. Visit the town Hafnarfjörður, the home of “elves” and “humans” alike; see an old fishing harbor, fish market (when it is open), the University District, the Old Town Centre and Parliament Building and the New City Hall; view a geothermal heated outdoor swimming pool, and artwork crafted by Ásmundur Sveinsson and Einar Jónsson. Weather and circumstances permitting, end up at the towering Hallgrímur’s church to spend time taking in the magnificent view from the top of the tower, viewing various art displays, and walking downhill approximately 10 minutes to the city centre before returning to the hotel.
- Welcome Reception at Ásmundarsafn Museum on Sunday, July 23
- Departure Transfers on Saturday, July 29
- Travel Representatives in attendance
- All applicable taxes, service charges and gratuities on included arrangements

PRICE PER PERSON:

Two Adults Sharing a Room:
- U.S. $1,565.00
- Single Occupancy $2,145.00
- Triple Occupancy $1,025.00
- Child Under 12 $ 595.00

Above rates are per person. Limited number of Triple and Quad rooms available. Prices quoted are in U.S. dollars, based on the rate of exchange at press time, subject to adjustment should a major currency fluctuation occur.

OPTIONAL TOURS

Monday, July 24

Walking/Shopping Tour

9:00 am – 11:00 am   $20 per person

Spend your morning with a leisurely walk in the area of the Hotel. Your guide will point out local attractions, and shopping areas. Reykjavik may very well be the best-kept secret of the cosmopolitan shopping enthusiast. Despite rumors that Reykjavik’s an expensive city, its prices are generally on a par with those in New York. And when it comes to high fashion or designer wear, Reykjavik prices are almost always more reasonable. What gives? Well, in Reykjavik the markup is lower, thanks to reasonably priced retail space and lower overhead. Add to this the 15% tax-free refund for tourists – off a minimum purchase of ISK 4,000 (near $50 US) – and you may wind up with some excellent buys indeed. Incidentally, price tags in Iceland always include sales tax. Includes guide. Minimum 15 persons.

Thorsmörk Tour

2:00 pm – 10:00 pm   $245 per person

Guided tour to the beautiful and lush Thorsmörk, “The valley between the glaciers” and to the beautiful waterfall Seljalandsfoss. Begin this extraordinary tour by driving over the plateau Hellisheiði, through Seljósfoss, Hella and Hvítlavöllur. Visit the beautiful waterfall Seljalandsfoss, and walk behind the falls. Continue over the Steinholtsá River and walk into the narrow gorge of Stakkholtsgjá, an unusual and breathtaking canyon. The main attraction is Thorsmörk, also known as “Thor’s Woods”, a natural reserve sheltered on three sides by glaciers, mountains and glacial rivers. There are a multitude of small gullies and valleys, clad with low birch trees that create seemingly endless possibilities for the nature lover. Find more than 170 plant, moss and lichen species in this lush area. Thorsmörk is a narrow valley situated between three glaciers named Myrdals-, Eyjafjallaj- and Tindafjallajökull. Thorsmörk was a fjord some 12,000 years ago. The outlet glaciers tumble and crawl down into the gullies, some of them ending in spectacular glacial lagoons. The glacial melt-off forms Rivers. All have to be crossed on the way into Thorsmörk. This trip is truly unforgettable for the nature lover and ideal as a hiking trip. Includes: round trip transportation, dinner and guide. Minimum 15 persons.

Lobster Dinner

At Vid fjöurböndi on the return to the hotel. By the seaside, located in the fishing village of Stokkseyri, it’s a restaurant true to its name, specializing in lobster, fresh from the ocean on the very doorstep surrounded by scenic beauty. (For those who prefer meat, the restaurant serves Icelandic lamb and an array of hearty sandwiches.)

Tuesday, July 25

Botanical Gardens Tour with Geothermal Pool

8:30 am – 11:30 am   $62 per person

Those who are interested in botany and gardening should not miss visiting this garden. It was opened in 1961 and accommodates an extensive selection of gullies and valleys, clad with low birch trees that create seemingly endless possibilities for the nature lover. Find more than 170 plant, moss and lichen species in this lush area. Thorsmörk is a narrow valley situated between three glaciers named Myrdals-, Eyjafjallaj- and Tindafjallajökull. of Icelandic and foreign plants. The gardens are open all year, but are of course most beautiful and blooming during summer. Laugardals Swimming Pool is a geothermal outside pool area offering 4 pools, 3 hot tubs, steam bath, slide, infant slide, sun benches, massage, water massage and a Cafeteria serving warm and cold drinks, cakes, and sandwiches. Includes: entrance fees and guide. Minimum 5 persons.

Hiking Tour

1:30 pm – 5:30 pm $87 per person

More than half of Iceland is over 1,312 feet above sea level, and a large part of the island is covered by lava, glaciers, lakes and sand. Few places in Iceland have marked walking paths, but hiking is a favorite pastime for Icelanders and tourists alike. On the outskirts of Reykjavik, post-glacial lava flows from the Reyjanes volcanic rift. This hike in the Heiomork Nature Reserve explores the petrified lava river of Burfellsgja, the crater Burfell and the remains of human history in this harsh, spectacular environment. Wear sturdy shoes or boots and a wind breaker. Includes: round trip transportation, guides, helmets and guides. Minimum 6 persons.

Trout Fishing

1:30 pm – 6:00 pm $110 per person

Reynsvatn is one of the many small lakes in the city limits of Reykjavik and is located only about 20 minutes drive from the hotel. A special “rainbow” trout has been cultivated in this lake for years. It's one of the most popular locations for fishing as a catch is almost assured! Includes: round trip transportation, license and rod. Minimum 6 persons.

Glacier Snowmobile Tour

2:00 pm – 8:00 pm $210 per person

Hop into a Nissan jeep and head out on a drive through beautiful scenery for Thingvellir, a National Park located about 35 minutes from Reykjavik. The tour will visit either Langjökull or Myrdalsjökull glacier for an exhilarating snowmobile ride. Weather on the glaciers dictates which glacier will be visited. On the return to the hotel, visit Nesjavellir power station for a view of the use of the awesome geothermal power. Includes: round trip transportation, overalls, helmets and guides. Minimum 4 persons.

Wednesday, July 26

Full-Day Tour to Snaefellsnes Peninsula

9:00 am – 6:00 pm $276 per person

Snaefellsnes, the western peninsula is a unique area and only about two hours’ drive from Reykjavik. Nature lovers enjoy the energy radiation, as they believe it to be on one of earth’s few energy spots. It has also been an inspiration for authors as Jules Verne, the French author of the widely-read book “The Journey to the Centre of the Earth,” tells. Drive to Olafsvik village and make a short stop; from there head to the north shore of Snaefellsnes and stop at Breiðafjörður Bay. Breiðafjörður Bay is the second largest one in the country and about 70 kilometres wide with around 2700 islands. The bay is renowned for its stunning beauty, with the perfect frame of mountains, high and low, highlighting the scenery. The most famous of these mountains is the majestic and mystical Snaefellsjökull glacier, towering at the coastal edge of the peninsula. There is rich variety of bird life including puffins, shags and cormorants and grey phalaropes nested in the cliffs. This is also the only area where the white-tailed eagle nests in Iceland. During the cruise the net is hauled and you can taste fresh shellfish and sea urchin directly from the sea!

When back on dry land you will have time to stroll around Stykkishólmur village and explore the many sites of interest. This town was, and still is, the centre of trade and service for the peninsula and is widely influenced by Denmark – they even used to speak Danish on Sundays! After free time, head back to Reykjavik. Tour is subject to weather permitting. Includes: round trip transportation, guide, and lunch. Minimum 30 persons.

Full Day Tour to Greenland.

10:00 am – 4:00 pm $685 per person

Just a mere two hours away from Iceland is Greenland, a country so close yet so different. Air Iceland operates flights to Kulusuk on the east coast. Kulusuk Island is situated west of the entrance to Ammassalik fjord. In the area around the fjord is the main settlement of the Ammassalik Eskimos, who were unknown to the rest of the world until 1884. Now more than 2,000 Greenlanders live in the Ammassalik district, earning their living by fishing and seal hunting. Take off from Reykjavik Airport with knowledgeable guides. On arrival at Kulusuk, start on a 30-minute walk down to the village itself, with short stops en route to take in the magnificent scenery. Take time to stroll around the village itself, purchase hand-made craft articles or even strike up an acquaintance with some of Kulusuk’s 360 inhabitants. With weather permitting, see a demonstration of kayak rowing and the ancient drum dance which disappeared a long time ago on Greenland but is still kept alive by a few people on the east coast. On the return flight to Reykjavik, enjoy a spectacular view over Ammassalik village, where the scenery is magnificent and huge glaciers and floating icebergs can be seen. Finally, you’ll be given a certificate as well as a stamp in your passport acknowledging your visit to Kulusuk. Includes: round trip transportation, flight, kayak show, guide, and light refreshments on the airplane. Minimum 2 persons.
Thursday, July 27

Shopping Tour to Álafoss Wool and Handicraft Outlet Factory

8:45 am – 11:45 am $58 per person

Álafoss, in Mosfellsbær, has been the site of diverse industry and culture for over a century. Its history dates back to 1896, when a local farmer imported machinery for processing wool, and built a factory a short distance below the waterfall, “Álafoss”, in the Varmá river. The old factory in the “gully” has found a new role in the woolen history. The Álafoss factory outlet is on the ground floor of the “big factory-building” and many of the old houses have also been renovated as studios and workshops for various artists and craftsmen. Álafoss has played an important role in the history of Icelandic industry for over a century and has changed the surrounding community from scattered farmsteads into the beautiful town Mosfellsbær. Varmá still runs through the Álafoss gully and the small waterfall. Includes: round trip transportation and guide. Minimum 6 persons.

Golden Circle Tour (including lunch)

12:30 am – 6:30 pm $165 per person

This tour gives you the opportunity to see the highlights of Iceland. Start by visiting the National Park, Íngvekk, where the Icelandic parliament Alþingi was established in 930 and in August 2004 added to UNESCO’s World Heritage List. Continue to the majestic and beautiful waterfall, Gullfoss in the golden rays of the setting sun. From there, visit the geothermal area around the incredible spouting hot springs of Geysir and Strokkur. This is a great opportunity to experience romantic tranquility in a beautiful area that touches everybody. Includes: round trip transportation, lunch and guide. Minimum 15 persons.

Friday, July 28

Whale Watching

1:30 pm – 5:30 pm $80 per person

Iceland is considered by various whale watching experts and tour operators as Europe’s new ‘Hot Spot’, with astonishingly high sighting rates. The most common whales spotted are the friendly minke whales but also blue whales, humpback whales, sei and fin whales, killer whales and of course a number of dolphins including white beaks and harbor porpoises are often spotted. Cruises are made on a quiet, old-fashioned oaken boat and on shore there is an exhibition center dedicated to the many species of whales that sport in the bay. The season runs from May through September. Includes: round trip transportation. Minimum 8 persons.

Horseback Riding

1:30 pm – 5:30 pm $85 per person

The Vikings arrived in Iceland more than a thousand years ago, bringing their horses with them. When these settlers created the world’s oldest surviving Parliament in the year 930, one of their first acts was to prohibit further importation of horses. Today, more than ten centuries later, the breed remains pure. Strong and muscular, these horses are sure-footed enough to handle the roughest Icelandic terrain. Small and gentle, with great stamina, speed and intelligence, they are the perfect riding companions. They are friendly, willing, docile animals that take obvious pleasure in carrying their riders across grassy plains, up and down rocky slopes, through rivers and over fields of rough lava, offering travelers a unique way to enjoy the splendors and nature of Iceland. Includes: round trip transportation. Minimum 8 persons.

Pub Crawling

10:00 pm – 2:00 am $67 per person

Celebrate your last night in Iceland with your fellow attendees! Soak up a little local color in downtown Reykjavík. Depart the hotel for Rex, one of Reykjavík’s hot and trendy spots. Then on to Thorvaldsen, a local disco. Next is Pravda, where the beautiful people go to show off! Finally, stop at Hverfisbarinn, noted for its laid-back atmosphere and good music. All pubs are within walking distance. Includes: round trip transportation from hotel to downtown and guide. Does not include drinks or entrance fees. Minimum 15 persons.

Saturday, July 29

Free morning

A Whale Watching Cruise can be arranged or take time for shopping on your own before late afternoon flights home.

In addition to the above, optional helicopter rides, river rafting, and golf along with other tours may be arranged on site. NOTE: Tours do not include gratuities to guides and/or drivers and are at the discretion of each individual based on excellence of service.

Airlines

Airlines concerned are not to be held responsible for any act, omission, or event during the time passengers are not on board their planes or conveyances. The passenger contract (ticket) in use by the airlines concerned, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between the airlines and the purchaser of those tours and/or passenger.

 Responsibility:

Travel Planners, Inc., New York University Department of Radiology and their agents act only as agents for passengers in all matters pertaining to the purchase and use of hotel accommodations, sightseeing tours, transportation via rail, motor bus, motor car, sea and air. As agents, they contract only with independent contractors whom they reasonably believe to be competent to supply transportation, services, and accommodations offered in this brochure. Your purchase and use of the services described in this brochure shall be your binding contractual agreement that the liability and responsibility of Travel Planners, Inc., New York University Department of Radiology and their agents and employees are limited to exercise of reasonable care in the selection of the independent contractors who provide the services described in this brochure.

Travel Planners, Inc., New York University Department of Radiology and their respective agents and employees expressly disclaim and shall not be held responsible for any act, omission, event, damage, loss, cost, expense, or inconvenience resulting from late arrivals or departures of any mode of transportation, change of schedule or condition, oversold conditions or delays in room occupancy, or any other services provided by these independent contractors and suppliers, including the loss of payments due to supplier insolvency, nor for the loss of, or damage to, baggage or any property belonging to the passenger, nor for any bodily injury, including death, to any person from any cause whatsoever, nor for any damage, loss, responsible for any occurrence or condition beyond their control, including but not limited to acts of God, criminal acts of others, acts of government or other authorities, war, riot, civil disturbance, acts of terrorism, strikes, theft, or defects or breakdown of transportation equipment.
