

NYU CME in Santa Fe – Group Tours August 1-5, 2011

Don't miss out on these exclusive OPTIONAL ACTIVITIES for NYU Attendees!

Please reserve your activities in advance so minimums can be met and there will be less risk of any tour cancellations.

All activities below have been arranged as private tours so as not to conflict with the meeting agenda and are offered exclusively to NYU attendees and guests. These tours are available only through Travel Planners, Inc. (TPI) the appointed agent for NYU. TPI reserves the right to cancel, reprice, or organize tours as a joint public tour should the minimum number needed to operate not be met.

Click on the following link to reserve your space on these activities.

<https://www.tpires.com/nyud/index.htm>

For questions, call 1-800-531-7201.

Monday, August 1, 2011

Historic Walking Tour 9:00am – 11:00am $24 per person

Take a leisurely 1½ - 2 hour stroll through more than 400 years of history, art, and culture. This walking tour presents an extraordinary introduction Santa Fe, and provides an entertaining, humorous and accurate portrayal of the "City Different." A professional local guide will lead the group to the historic Plaza and to the Palace of the Governors. Learn about the St. Francis Cathedral, explore the Loretto Chapel and its miraculous staircase, and other major Santa Fe historical sites before returning to the hotel. Includes: Local guide and tax.
Minimum 10 persons

Bandelier National Monument 1:30pm – 6:00pm $120 per person

Enjoy a boxed lunch during an approximately 30 minute drive outside Santa Fe to the "must see" Bandelier National Monument. Located on the Pajarito Plateau of the Jemez Mountains, Bandelier was the home of the Anasazi Indians, colloquially "the Ancient Ones", from the 11th to the 14th centuries. Excavated over 90 years ago, these ruins were once home to over 200 people, ancestors of today's Pueblo Indians. Walk along easy paths past the remains of ancient dwellings, to the cliff dwellings where you can climb ladders to peer inside. If time permits, take a walk further up the path that leads to the Ceremonial Cave, where the Anasazi and later descendants held spiritual rites and celebrations. (This trail is classified moderate to difficult due to the 140' of vertical climb up ladders.) From Bandelier, proceed to the San Ildefonso Pueblo along the banks of the Rio Grande. One of the six Tewa speaking villages in Northern New Mexico, San Ildefonso is famous for its "black on black" pottery. Maria Martinez, perhaps the most famous of all Pueblo potters, was from this village and many of her descendants still reside and make pottery here. Short stops will be made at a local pottery shop and the pottery museum. Includes: Round trip transportation, boxed lunch, professional guides, entrance fees, taxes and gratuities. Minimum 10 persons

Tuesday, August 2, 2011

Culinary Walking Tour 10:00am – 12:30am $149 per person

Want to learn more about where to dine in Santa Fe? Put on your most comfortable walking shoes and join this group for the only tour of it's kind in New Mexico. Start at the internationally recognized Santa Fe School of Cooking for a meet and greet with a chef/guide and a delicious sampling. Then it's out for a guided tour to four of Santa Fe's most prestigious dining destinations. The chef/guide will provide information about the different cultural influences happening in the foods of Santa Fe, along with introductions to some of the city's most famous and favorite chefs. Each stop will include a private tasting and audience with the chefs, owners and other key players that make this city one of America's Top Culinary Capitals! Includes: Chef/guide, restaurant demonstrations, recipes, tasting and taxes. Minimum 10/Maximum 15 persons

A Night at the Santa Fe Opera 6:00pm – Midnight $250 per person

A night of Opera in Santa Fe is like no other experience! Guests will be transferred to the beautiful Santa Fe Opera complex to enjoy dinner, including wine and dessert, at the open-air cantina on the beautifully landscaped rehearsal grounds. A guest speaker offers an informative talk about the evening's opera during the dessert course. You'll then enjoy La Boheme, sung in Italian. Ah, to be young and in love and in Paris! In Puccini's hands, the affaire d'amour between Mimi and Rodolfo became one of the most poignant and most popular operas ever written. Paul Curran's celebrated 2007 production returns with Ana María Martínez and David Lomeli as the star-crossed lovers. Includes: Round trip transportation, opera dinner, guest speaker, opera performance and taxes. Minimum 20 persons

Wednesday, August 3, 2011 – No meeting today – Free Day

Fly Fishing in New Mexico 9:00am – 1:00pm $339 per person

For the novice to the expert, New Mexico offers some of the finest fly fishing west of the Mississippi. Imagine fishing mountain streams so infrequently fished that it is not uncommon to hook up to 100 fish per day! If you're an angler rather than a fly fisherman, don't worry. This trip can also accommodate you. Advise us in advance so that the correct equipment will be on hand. Includes: Round trip transfers, professional guide, state license, all equipment (rod, reel, waders, and tackle box), box lunch, refreshments, tax and gratuities. Minimum 3 persons

Museums/Gallery Tour 9:45am – 1:30pm $100 per person

Enjoy a private guided 4-hour tour of four of the finest museums in the United States. The tour begins with what is perhaps Santa Fe's most unique museum, the Museum of International Folk Art. Celebrating folk art from around the world, including work from over 100 countries, elaborate dioramas from 19th century Germany, New Mexican quilts, Mexican masks, South American and African puppets, amulets, talismans, and an endless array of figurines and ceremonial clothing. The Museum of Indian Arts and Culture will introduce the group to the historical and contemporary lives of the Pueblo, Navajo and Apache cultures. The museum features rotating displays from its collection of Southwestern Indian artifacts, as well as many other interpretive artifacts, arts, crafts and photographs. Next, visit the Spanish Colonial Arts Museum. This beautiful museum was designed by famed New Mexico architect, John Gaw Meem. The Hispanic community has contributed a beautiful collection of retablos, tinwork and rugs. Last on the stop will be the Georgia O'Keeffe Museum. This museum features the works of one of the most proclaimed female artist in the 20th century. Georgia O'Keeffe was influential in forming the artist community in Santa Fe and the southwest. Includes: Round trip transportation, private guide, entrance fees, and tax. Minimum 10 persons

River Rafting 10:00am - 2:30pm $149 per person

The five-mile Racecourse section of the Rio Grande is the most popular river rafting trip. A wild class III+ ride during the spring high-water, July and August trips become a more technically demanding runs as the water goes down and the rocks come up. During summer runs, the guide will depend on riders to help maneuver the raft through many tight spots. In addition, as the water warms up there are more opportunities for warm-water fun, such as swimming and boat surfing! Enjoy a fresh trout lunch riverside! The Racecourse is a great trip for whitewater enthusiasts, as well as experienced rafters looking for a quick adrenaline fix. Minimum age is six, although this may be adjusted in high water run off conditions. Maximum weight limit is 230 lbs. Includes: Round trip transfers, professional guide, equipment, lunch, tax and gratuities. Minimum 6 persons.

Thursday, August 4, 2011

“Behind Adobe Walls” Exclusive Tour 9:00am – 1:00pm $210 per person

Enter a private vault of one of Santa Fe’s most proclaimed jewelers. There you’ll receive access to over 10,000 pieces of jewelry – everything from earrings and rings to necklaces and belt buckles. From traditional southwestern designs to the newest contemporary creations, this is a one of a kind shopping experience! This vault is not open to the public! Wholesale pricing will be offered...just like to the buyers from Nordstrom and Neiman Marcus! Then off to lunch and a fashion show at one of Santa Fe’s most eclectic estates where you can enjoy margaritas, 360 degree views, boot fashion show and a peek at what is behind adobe walls. This is a unique experience and everyone from Hollywood to Nashville owns a pair of these phenomenal boots – and you should too! Includes: Round trip transportation, private vault visit, lunch, fashion show and tax. Minimum 20 persons

Horseback Riding 1:15pm – 3:30pm $149 per person

North Central New Mexico has been the location for many Western films made in recent years. Cover some of the same country you may have seen on screen in “Silverado”, “Lonesome Dove”, and “City Slickers”. The stables will meet the needs of riders at any skill level. Experienced wranglers accompany the riders on the trail. This is not your typical nose-to-tail trail ride, but wide open spaces with wranglers who know their stuff! Due to safety regulations no one under 10 years, over 210 pounds, or over 6’2” are permitted. Includes: Round trip transportation, wrangler guides, equipment and tax. Minimum 9/Maximum 12 persons

Friday, August 5, 2011

Exclusive Artist’s Studios Tour 9:00am – 1:00pm $210 per person

Whether you are an art enthusiast, collector or just want to see some fabulous artist’s studios – this is the opportunity to explore and speak directly with some of Santa Fe’s most renowned artists. Anyone can go to a gallery – how about to some of the most private studios that make Santa Fe the third largest art market in the US? An art consultant guide with insider knowledge will accompany you to private artists studios where you can watch the creative process unfold. Lunch on the patio of one of the finest artist and collector. Includes: Round trip transportation, site fees, lunch and tax. Minimum 20 persons

Local staff will be on site to assist with additional activities, area information, dining suggestions and other sightseeing recommendations.