Step 1 of 1: Speaker Agreement

ACCME Standards for Commercial Support

As an accredited CME provider, the NYU Post-Graduate Medical School requires that its planners and presenters comply with the Updated ACCME Standards for Commercial Support of CME. We will disclose to our participant's this CME activity is supported by educational grants. As a member of our faculty, you are required to do the following:

- required to do the following:

   Disclose any relevant financial interest or relationship that you and your spouse/domestic partner may have with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial interest that is discussed as part of your presentation
   Design a presentation that is independent, objective, scientifically rigorous, balanced and free of bias Assure that scientific studies utilized or referenced in your presentation are from sources acceptable to the scientific and medical community Include patient care recommendations that are acceptable to the medical community and do not recommend any unscientific modalities or those not supported by evidenced based sources Maintain independence from any commercial supporters regarding the development of the activity content
- In addition, the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) requires that disclosure be made to learners of unlabeled or unapproved uses of drugs or devices contained in presentations. Please be sure to disclose to learners when you are discussing unlabeled or unapproved uses of drugs or devices.

Compliance with U.S. and International Intellectual Property Laws and Treaties

In order to comply with U.S. and international intellectual property laws and intelactes in order to comply with U.S. and international intellectual property laws and treaties, instructors are required to identify graphics and other information used in the presentation that are protected by copyright and properly acknowledge the source of the cited material in a footnote on the side. Should the material be further used in an enduring material, written relaxes must be obtained and forwarded to the NYU PGMS. Acknowledgment of the source of the cited material must be made in a footnote on the side.

3. You will then be asked to Confirm and Save Your Profile. Please ensure that all of the information (Degree(s), Administrative Title, Academic Title, Affiliation(s)) shows correctly, as we will be using this information on all marketing materials.
