Applying for a Visiting Medical Student Elective
Department of Anesthesiology, Perioperative Care & Pain Medicine
New York University Grossman School of Medicine

Thank you for your interest in the visiting medical student Anesthesiology Elective at NYU Grossman School of Medicine.

- Further information can be found on the Information for Visiting MD Students page. This site is updated frequently.
- If you have any questions about medical student training in our department, please contact the Program Director, Kenneth Sutin, MD at kenneth.sutin@nyulangone.org.
- Beginning April 15, 2021, we will review visiting student applications for electives starting no earlier than August 2, 2021. Our department does not offer a July rotation.
- Acceptance is provisional pending our institution’s final decision on visiting student rotations. The final decision will be based on rates of COVID-19 infection and vaccination both locally and nationally as well as local, state, and federal guidelines.
- In-person away rotations in any specialty are limited to one per student.
- To be considered, your medical school must be accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education (LCME or the Commission or Osteopathic College Accreditation).

Visiting students are only eligible for a 4-week elective and electives are only offered for the following block dates:
