

The Clery Act

The Clery Act is a federal law originally known as the Campus Security Act that requires colleges and universities across the United States to disclose information about crime on and around their campus.

In accordance with federal regulations, New York University annually publishes its Campus Security Report, which contains campus security policies and procedures as well as campus crime statistics. Copies are available on request from the Office of Student Life, New York University, Kimmel Center for University Life, 60 Washington Square South, Suite 601, New York, N.Y. 10012-1097.
