Representation of NYU Medical Center

Students may not make public statements on behalf of the NYU Medical Center nor may they in any official or unofficial capacity, use the name or designation of NYU or any of its constituent parts in materials of any type for public distribution without prior permission from the Office of Communications and Public Affairs.

If students are found violating the policy, they will be subject to the School of Medicine Student Disciplinary Process.