Policy on Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity

New York University is committed to a policy of equal treatment and opportunity in every aspect of its relations with its faculty, students, and staff members, without regard to age, citizenship status, color, disability, marital or parental status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression. This includes, but is not limited to, recruitment, hiring or appointment, selection for training, transfer, layoff, promotion, granting of tenure, rates of pay and other forms of compensation and participation in University-sponsored educational, social, and recreational programs.

It is the policy of NYU Grossman School of Medicine, in accordance with Title VI of the U.S. Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, or handicap in any educational program or activity. Furthermore, it is the policy of NYU School of Medicine, in accordance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, not to discriminate on the basis of sex in any educational program or activity.

Inquiries regarding the application of Title IX and its implementing regulations may be referred to the NYU Grossman School of Medicine Title IX Coordinator:
