Meeting of the Minds - Reproductive Endocrinology and Surgery

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This one-day course is designed for physicians interested in integrating reproductive endocrinology with minimally invasive surgical options in order to optimize the patient’s fertility outcome. The course will cover endometriosis and uterine myomas, focusing on surgical technique and timing of surgery. When should we remove endometriomas, which may decrease ovarian reserve, and when and how should we approach uterine fibroids? In addition, we will include streaming of live surgeries featuring minimally invasive techniques for treating endometriosis and fibroids.

The course will consist of a series of didactic lectures to establish the risks and benefits of surgical intervention in patients pursuing fertility sparing options. Also included will be live surgery demonstrations of surgical technique for myomectomy and endometriosis surgery.
