Utilities: Occupants pay for their own electricity (one account per apartment), telephone, and cable television. While there is a central heating and air conditioning system in the building, electricity is used to run the heating-air conditioning unit(s) in each apartment.

Con Edison is the electricity provider. Their website is http://coned.com You or a roommate must call Con Edison at 1-800-75-CONED to set up your apartment’s account for electricity service to ensure that the service is not discontinued. Con Edison will need the following information: your telephone number; the address of your apartment; your date of occupancy; your Social Security number, Resident alien number, Passport ID number, or state license ID number.

WiFi is included at no additional charge. To access the WiFi network, you will need to look for LMC Residential and then log in with your Kerberos (medical center email) i.d. and password. For more information, contact the IT help desk, (212) 263 6868, or #helpdesk@nyumc.org

The cable television provider is Time Warner Cable. www.timewarnergncable.com

Insurance: New York University suggests the following website for student renters’ insurance: www.nssi.com However, many companies offer renters insurance.
