Mission

The mission of the Department of Urology is to provide compassionate, leading-edge clinical care; pursue groundbreaking laboratory and translational research; and create exceptional educational opportunities for students, residents, fellows, and the urology community. Through our steadfast commitment to innovative care, research, and education, we strive daily to remain one of the world’s best urologic programs.

Key Accomplishments

- #6 in the United States for NIH funding 2016

- #10 in the country in urology for 2016-17 according to U.S. News & World Report’s “Best Hospital” survey

- One out of eight U.S. urologists have taken at least one continuing medical education (CME) course here at NYU Langone

- Many NYU Langone urologists are listed among Castle Connolly’s “America’s Top Doctors” (urology, cancer, and surgery) as well as in New York Magazine’s Best Doctors

- Among the top-performing urology departments for United Health-System Consortium quality metrics including #1 ranking in the U.S. for observed-to-expected length of hospital stay and mortality rates and #4 in the U.S. in terms of lowest readmission rate

- Over 90% of our patients surveyed by Press Ganey indicate they would refer family or friends to urology at NYU Langone
